7. All orders for the journal shall be accompanied by payment for the same.
8. In view of the obvious difficulties and inequities involved in singling out one or more persons worthy of special recognition, the journal shall not be dedicated to the memory or honor of any person.

G. DISTRICTS, DISTRICT CONFERENCES, AND DISTRICT COUNCILS

1. There shall be a total of fifteen districts in this annual conference, the boundaries of which shall be determined by the bishop after consultation with the cabinet.
2. At the discretion of the district superintendent, a District Conference may be held in each district. The membership of a District Conference shall consist of all clergy appointed to pastoral charges in the district or holding charge conference membership in the district, including those appointed to extension ministries or beyond the local church, retired, on incapacity leave, on sabbatical leave, on leave of absence, and on family leave; diaconal ministers appointed in the district; deaconesses appointed in the district; the chairperson of the District Administrative Council (or equivalent); the chairperson of the District Program Ministries Council (or equivalent); the chairperson of the district trustees; the chairperson of the Committee on District Superintendency; the district lay leader and associate district lay leaders; the president of the district United Methodist Men; the president of the district United Methodist Women; the at-large lay members of the immediately preceding annual conference from the district; and one lay member from and elected by each pastoral charge in the district, provided that each charge served by more than one clergy member of the annual conference shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members; and further provided that multiple-point charges shall be entitled to a lay member from each church.
3. As early in the calendar year as possible, each district superintendent shall furnish the bishop, the conference treasurer, and the conference statistician an official copy of the apportionments to the charges in his or her district for the World Service Fund, conference benevolences, pension funds and other clergy support funds, higher education, and other funds approved by the conference for apportionment to the charges, with the amount accepted by each charge and by each local church also being shown, and a schedule of the salaries of all pastors and associate pastors as set by the Charge Conference of each charge in the district.
4. Each district superintendent, upon request, shall furnish to the conference secretary such vital statistics and information as may be required.
5. The district lay leaders and associate district lay leaders shall be elected upon nomination by the district Committee on Nominations for a two-year term by the district Board of Laity, if such exists, or by the district Program Ministries Council and confirmed by the annual conference. 6. At least two youth (twelve to seventeen years of age) and two young adults (eighteen to thirty years of age) shall be included in the membership of the council. The primary purpose of the council is to assist congregations within the district in benefiting from programming/ministries resources available beyond the local church, to be a channel of communication between the local churches and the conference staff and between ministries agencies beyond the district, and to extend the ministry of the local church through appropriate endeavors which normally are not practical to implement by a single church or a small number of churches in concert. It shall have the same year as the annual conference. Operating expenses of the council shall be funded through the district expense fund. Nothing in these provisions is intended to override, or be a substitute for, the functions and authority of a district mission society, if such exists in a district.
7. The district Board of Church Location and Building, the district Board of Trustees, the district Committee on the Ordained Ministry, and the Committee on District Superintendency shall be organized in each district as provided for above. A district treasurer and other necessary officers and committees shall be elected annually by the District Conference upon nomination by the district Committee on Nominations and/or from the floor; provided, that if no District Conference is held, the district Program Ministries Council, upon nomination by the district Committee on Nominations, shall elect a district treasurer and other necessary officers and committees.

H. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

1. All lay members of the conference as designated in section B above and all ordained ministerial members in full connection in the conference shall be entitled to vote, with laity voting only for laity and clergy voting only for clergy.

 - b. Second Ballots: The names of all persons receiving twenty or more votes shall be announced.
 - c. Third and All Subsequent Ballots: The names of all persons receiving thirty or more votes shall be announced.

NOTE: A person's name not being announced because his or her vote total was less than the number necessary for announcement does not mean that the person is necessarily ineligible for election.
7. Individual ballots shall be valid only when cast for the prescribed number of eligible persons to be elected on each ballot and cast on the forms and in the manner provided for and designated by the conference. Inclusion of the name of a person already elected, the name of an ineligible person, or an illegible name shall invalidate that entire individual ballot. Adjudication of illegibility shall be the responsibility of the chief tellers.

PART II

RULES OF ORDER

A. PRESIDING OFFICER:

Rule 1. Authority of the Chairperson: The resident bishop or president pro-tempore or the presiding officer designated by the bishop to preside in the bishop's temporary absence shall be the chairperson of the conference. The chairperson shall decide points of order raised by the members and shall rule on points of order not raised by the members as the chairperson deems necessary to conform to these rules of order, subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the conference by any member without debate, except that the chairperson and the appellant, in that order, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the chairperson. When any member raises a point of order, the member shall cite, by number, the rule alleged to have been violated. The chairperson shall have the right to recess a session of the conference at any time in the chairperson's discretion and to reconvene at such a time as the chairperson shall announce, with only members, authorized personnel, and authorized guests permitted to attend such a session following recess.

Rule 2. Calling the Conference to Order: When the chairperson stands in place and calls the conference to order, no member shall speak or address the chairperson while the chairperson stands.

B. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS:

Rule 3. Interrupting the Speaker: No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the conference to the fact that the time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

Rule 4. Frequency and Length of Speeches: No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, and no longer than three minutes unless the member's time shall be extended by the conference, except as provided in Rule 37. This three-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the conference at any time and for any period of duration. The provisions of this rule shall likewise apply to the asking of a question or questions by an individual and to answers to that individual by the person or agency to whom the questions are directed.

Rule 5. Total Time for Debate on an Individual Proposal: When a proposal is to be presented as the main motion for debate, the conference may, by majority vote upon motion by any member, set a time limit for the total debate on that question, including any amendments or other secondary motions related thereto, provided that such limitation shall not be construed to conflict with Rule 4 or Rule 37. If such a limitation is set, the chairperson may direct the coordinator of calendar to allocate the total time among speakers for and against the question by such means as the coordinator deems appropriate, consistent with the provisions of Rule 4, and provided that the previous question may be ordered at any time as specified in Rule 31.

Rule 6. Question of High Privilege: A member claiming the floor for what he or she sees as a very urgent question of high privilege shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the privilege, and if it be adjudged by the chairperson to be such, the member may proceed at his or her pleasure, or until the chairperson judges that the member has exhausted the privilege.

Rule 7. Voting Bar of the Conference: At the organizational session of the conference, the voting bar of the plenary sessions of the conference shall be set by vote of the members. No place shall be designated a part of the voting bar which is without public address facilities Broadcasting the actual proceedings of the plenary sessions. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the conference shall be entitled to vote.

Rule 8. Voting Procedure: Voting shall be by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chairperson or by the conference. At the discretion of the chairperson, a count vote may be taken. A count vote may also be ordered at the call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall rise from their seats and be counted. The count shall be made by tellers appointed by the conference secretary and shall include the votes of members in the portions of the voting bar separate from the main assembly. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been ordered, unless the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report of the tellers on a count vote.

Rule 9. Limitation on Making and Seconding Motions: A person seated in the conference without the right to vote may neither make nor second motions.

Rule 10. Division of Question: Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as the member indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If there is objection, the chairperson shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

Rule 11. Unity of the Orders: Except in the election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional conferences and as otherwise provided herein, the clergy and lay members shall deliberate and vote as one body.

C. BUSINESS PROCEDURE:

Rule 12. Organizational Session: The opening or organizational session of the conference shall include at least the following:

Rule 13. Petitions: Petitions may be made to the conference by conference agencies and related entities; the cabinet; lay and clergy members of the conference; councils, boards, and committees of the districts of the conference; and councils, boards, committees, and professing members of local churches of the conference. Each petition must be submitted to the conference secretary in writing, preferably by electronic means, by May 1 prior to the convening of the conference; must be signed by the maker(s) thereof (understood to mean the chairperson and secretary in the case of a petitioning group); and must contain information sufficient to validate the source (church or charge name, district, address, e-mail address, etc.). Any petition containing personal references or dealing in personalities may be returned to the originator(s) with an explanation. The conference secretary shall assign a number and give a subject title to each petition prior to its publication.

Rule 14. Pre-Conference Publications:

- a. Booklet of Program and Reports: All annual reports and petitions of conference agencies and related entities shall be submitted in writing, preferably by electronic means, to the conference secretary by a designated date prior to the convening of the conference. Under the direction of the secretary, these reports and petitions, the official program of the conference, and the current edition of the plan of organization and rules of order shall be printed as a booklet and made available to each member of the conference at least three weeks prior to the convening of the conference. The expenses of printing and distribution shall be paid by the conference treasurer from conference administration funds.
- b. Supplement: All petitions submitted in conformity with Rule 13, excluding those from conference agencies and related entities printed in the booklet of program and reports, shall be printed under the direction of the conference secretary as a supplement to the booklet of program and reports and distributed to the members of the conference at the time of registration of members. The expenses of printing and distribution shall be paid by the conference treasurer from conference administration funds.

Rule 15. Referral of Matters with Financial Implications: All petitions and motions requesting a special offering or financial appeal or otherwise having financial implications for conference funds shall be referred to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which shall offer its recommendations concerning the matter prior to action by the annual conference. This rule shall not apply to proper amendments offered from the floor of the plenary sessions of the conference unless the conference so directs.

Rule 16. Consideration of Business Items: All petitions and other motions, including proposed amendments to the plan of organization and rules of order, printed and distributed in accordance with Rule 14, subject to correction of grammatical and editorial errors, shall be the property of the conference at the time of the opening of the conference without formal reading and shall be in order for consideration at any time thereafter.

Rule 17. Availability of Conference Actions: No later than ten days after the adjournment of the annual session, the conference secretary shall provide copies of all resolutions, proposals, and recommendations acted upon by the conference to the bishop, the conference director of connectional ministries, and the chairperson of the conference Commission on Communications.

Rule 18. New Proposals: No proposal shall be presented in the plenary sessions of the conference in violation of the deadlines specified in Rule 13. Decisions as to what constitutes new proposals lie with the chairperson. Nothing in this rule shall restrict the conference in its consideration of proper amendments to any report or recommendation when the report or recommendation is the main question before it; provided, however, that any amendment offered to any petition or proposal shall be submitted in writing to the secretary when presented to the conference, and, provided further, that the conference may, by majority vote, require that any unprinted motion be distributed prior to its consideration.

Rule 19. Special Study Reports: Special study reports ordered by a previous annual session shall be presented directly to the organizational session of the conference for such disposition as the conference may make, including referral if the conference so chooses.

Rule 20. Distribution of Unofficial Material: No leaflet, brochure, questionnaire, or other material shall be distributed on the floor of the conference or in the registration area except by prior approval of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting or by the order of the conference.

Rule 21. Minority Reports: A minority report must be signed by one fourth of the members of a conference agency or related entity to be deemed in order and may be printed in the booklet of program and reports or the supplement, subject to Rule 13. A minority report not so printed shall be subject to Rule 18. All minority reports shall be further subject to Rule 36.

Rule 22. Seconds Unnecessary: A report or petition from a conference agency or related entity, submitted in accordance with Rule 13, or a resolution, motion, or amendment signed by two or more members of the conference, subject to Rule 18, shall be in order for consideration by the conference without the formality of a motion to adopt or a second thereto.

Rule 23. Consent Calendar: All petitions from conference agencies and related entities printed in the booklet of program and reports, with the exception of the proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration concerning conference funds and financial policies, shall constitute the consent calendar and shall be so designated in that booklet. At the request of any member, the conference may, by majority vote, lift any item from the consent calendar for consideration in plenary session. All items not lifted from the consent calendar shall be acted upon at one time in plenary session at such time as the chairperson shall direct. The proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration related to conference funds and financial policies, petitions which have been lifted from the consent calendar, and other petitions conforming to Rule 13 shall be presented for conference action in plenary session.

Rule 24. Introductory or Explanatory Material and Resolutions: Immediately following the making of a motion or the presentation of a petition, the chairperson shall state the precise question which is before the conference, which shall not include Introductory, accompanying, or explanatory material. Such material shall not be subject to debate or amendment, nor be considered to have been acted upon by the conference upon adoption of the motion or petition itself, unless accompanied by a specific motion that such material be included in the action of the conference; provided, however, that resolutions shall be considered and acted upon in this manner: the portion(s) headed, "Resolved," shall first be perfected; the paragraph(s) headed, "Whereas," shall then be perfected; and action shall then be taken on the resolution as a whole.

Rule 25. Undebatable Motions: The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference finally.
- b. To suspend the rules.
- c. To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 37.
- d. To take from the table.
- e. To call for the previous question.
- f. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
- g. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- h. To call for the order of the day.

Rule 26. Rights of the Main Question: The main question may be opened for debate under a motion to adopt, to commit or refer, to substitute, to postpone, or to reconsider. No new motion, resolution, or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of, except as provided in Rule 8. The foregoing shall not apply to secondary motions if otherwise allowable in the existing parliamentary situation.

Rule 27. Precedence of Secondary Motions: If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be in the following order:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn, which motion is subject to amendment or may be laid on the table.
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take recess.
- d. To lay on the table.
- e. To order the previous question.

- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a given time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 28. Tabling Related Motions: No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, may be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

Rule 29. Referring Reports: The conference may refer any report, recommendation, or resolution, or any part thereof, which is before the conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 30. Consideration of Substitutes: When a recommendation, resolution, or report is properly before the conference for consideration and action, even if amendments thereto are pending, a substitute therefor may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report, recommendation, or resolution under consideration. The conference shall then first perfect the original, including consideration and action upon any amendments which may be offered to it. The same perfecting process shall then be followed with respect to the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report, recommendation, or resolution; provided, however, that the motion for the previous question shall not be in order on the adoption of the report or recommendation or on making the proposed substitution until opportunity has been given for at least two members to speak on each side of the question of substitution or adoption.

Rule 31. Previous Question: When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote now be taken on the motion or motions pending), the member shall indicate to what he or she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If the member does not so indicate, it shall apply only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption. If it is adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate, except as provided in Rule 37. (See also Rules 25, 30, and 32.)

Rule 32. When Motion to Limit or Stop Debate Not in Order: When the conference is considering a petition or other motion, no member, immediately after discussing the pending question and before relinquishing the floor, shall make a motion which, if adopted, would limit or stop debate.

Rule 33. Exceptions to Majority Vote: A majority of those voting shall decide all questions, with the following exceptions:

- a. One third of those present and voting shall sustain a count vote in case the decision of the chairperson is doubted (see Rule 8); a tie vote sustains the chairperson (Rule 1).
- b. A two-thirds vote shall be required to sustain a motion to suspend (Rule 42) or amend (Rule 43) the rules; to sustain a motion for the previous question (Rule 31); to set aside a special order; or to consider a special order before the time set therefor.
- c. A two-thirds vote by count shall be required to approve a proposed amendment to the constitution of the church (§§ 59-61 of the Discipline).

Rule 34. Reconsideration: A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated (Rule 25).

Rule 35. Calendar: The conference secretary, in consultation with the coordinator of calendar, shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day, reports, and other business items as recommended by the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and adopted by the conference as its agenda. Matters of business placed on the agenda by the conference shall be taken up in order, provided that the conference, by two-thirds vote, may take up an item out of order.

Rule 36. Presentation of Report of Minority: A member selected by the signers of a minority report (Rule 21) to present the same shall have the same rights and privileges in relation thereto which belong to the presenter of the majority report, except that the member may not present said minority report until the majority report has been presented, and shall then offer it as a substitute therefor, and except, further, that in closing the debate on the question of substitution, the member presenting the minority report shall speak first and the person presenting the majority report shall speak last. (See Rules 30 and 37).

Rule 37. Speakers For and Against: Except for undebatable motions, a question under consideration shall not be adopted until the presiding officer has given opportunity for at least two speeches for and two speeches against said proposal, alternately, so long as any member desires to speak on the other side thereof, provided that the right is claimed before the person presenting the proposal is recognized to close debate. After three speeches for and three speeches against the motion, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the vote on the motion shall then be taken; provided, however, that the person presenting the proposal shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right to close debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of two minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the matter under consideration; provided, however, that this two-minute limit shall not apply to a motion to substitute a minority report for a majority report (Rule 36).

Rule 38. Consideration of Agenda Items: Items on the agenda of the conference shall be taken up on the day scheduled.

Any calendar items for a certain day that are not received on that day or are not completed before adjournment shall not take precedence over calendar items for the day to which said item or items have been postponed. After the calendar items for that day have been completed, postponed calendar items shall be considered.

Rule 39. Motion to Adjourn: The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate and shall always be in order, except:

- a. When a member has the floor.
- b. When a question is actually being put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- c. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
- d. When a motion to adjourn has been lost and no business or debate has intervened.
- e. When a motion to fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn is pending. The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the conference.

Rule 40. Between sessions of the Annual Conference the Connectional Table shall be empowered to complete any unfinished or emergent business of the Annual Conference that does not contravene the Book of Discipline (2008).

D. AUTHORITY, SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING:

Rule 41. Authority: The plan of organization and rules of order of the annual session of the conference shall be the plan of organization and rules of order of the preceding annual session until and unless they have been amended or modified by the action of the annual conference.

Rule 42. Suspension: The operation of any of the provisions of these rules of order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference, except as may otherwise be provided by Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 43. Amendments: The plan of organization and rules of order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the conference, provided that the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and has been presented to the conference in writing or, if from a source other than this committee, has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to this committee. The rule fixing the number of districts may not be amended later than the second morning of the annual session. Changes and amendments printed in the booklet of program and reports shall be in order for consideration by the conference at any time during the annual session, provided that notice of such shall have been given in writing to the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting prior to the opening of conference (see Rule 16). Otherwise, no proposed change or amendment shall be submitted to vote until and unless one day has elapsed from the initial presentation to the conference.

Rule 44. Supplemental Authority: In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by the plan of organization and rules of order, the conference shall be governed in its actions by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.
