CONTENTS

Contributors .......................................................... 2
Mission to Nova Scotia, by Norman A. McNairn .............. 3
The Election of Bishop McKendree Reconsidered, by Joseph Mitchell .................................................. 19
Bishop Milton Wright: A Man of Conviction, by John H. Ness, Jr. .................................................. 32
The Reluctant Lover: John Wesley as Suitor, by Maldwyn Edwards ................................................. 46
DISCOVERY, edited by Frederick E. Maser .................. 63

Methodist History is included in the Index to Religious Periodical Literature,
The United Methodist Periodical Index,
and Religious and Theological Abstracts

Manuscripts submitted for publication, and all other correspondence, should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina 28745.
CONTRIBUTORS

NORMAN A. McNAIRN, minister of Knox United Church, Sutton, Ontario, is a graduate of McMaster University and Toronto University in Canada. He received his S.T.M. from Union Theological Seminary, New York, and the Th.D. from the Iliff School of Theology in Denver. He was editor of the Adult Curriculum for the United Church of Canada, 1958-66. He also served for a time as research assistant in the Presbyterian Historical Society in Philadelphia.

JOSEPH MITCHELL, Chairman, Department of Philosophy and Religion, Troy State University, has contributed previously to Methodist History.

JOHN H. NESS, JR., Editor of this magazine, is Executive Secretary of the Commission on Archives and History, The United Methodist Church.

MALDWYN EDWARDS, Director of the New Room at Bristol, England, is a noted British Methodist scholar and has contributed a number of times to this magazine.

COVER
The Hay Bay Church is the oldest United Church edifice in existence in Canada today, and was the first Methodist church to be built west of the Maritimes, erected in 1792.