CONTRIBUTORS

IVAN BURNETT, JR., a native of Mississippi, is a member of the Southern California-Arizona Conference of The United Methodist Church and is a Chaplain and a Lieutenant in the U. S. Navy. At present he is stationed at the Naval Communication Station in Guam. Dr. Burnett was educated at Millsaps College, B.A.; Yale University, M.Div.; and The School of Theology at Claremont, D.Min. He works very closely with alcohol abusers and alcoholics and is a frequent lecturer on ways of ministering to them. He is married and has two sons.

E. RALPH BATES, a British Methodist minister, was born in Buckinghamshire, England and was educated at Aylesbury Grammar School and Didsbury Methodist Theological College. He was severely wounded at Passchaendale, Flanders, in 1917. First acquiring banking and military experience, Mr. Bates then entered the ministry and has served in Bristol, London, Liverpool and Birmingham. He retired from office as Warden of John Wesley's Chapel (The “New Room in the Horsefair”), Bristol, in 1972, and resides at Bath. He is the author of several historical studies.

LAWRENCE E. BREEZE, Professor of History at Southeast Missouri State University, took undergraduate work at the University of New Hampshire and Missouri Valley College. He received the Ph.D., with specialization in modern British history, from the University of Missouri. He taught at Jacksonville University for several years and served as vice-chairman of the Conference Historical Society of the Florida Annual Conference, 1964-66.

NORMAN A. McNAIRN, minister of Knox United Church, Sutton, Ontario, is a graduate of McMaster University and Toronto University in Canada. He received the S.T.M. from Union Theological Seminary, New York, and the Th.D. from the Iliff School of Theology. Dr. McNairn contributed a previous article to this periodical in January, 1974.

THOMAS L. SHANKLIN, pastor of the United Methodist Church, Fowler, Kansas, took his undergraduate studies at Farleigh Dickerson University and studied theology at Drew University, receiving the M.Div. degree in 1972 and the S.T.M. degree in 1974.

COVER: This likeness of Wesley was photographed from the original painting, artist unknown, by James Dickinson, Newcastle, England. It was furnished to the New York Christian Advocate by the Rev. Thomas E. Brigden of Manchester, England, and appeared on the front page of that publication for February 5, 1903. It was also published in John F. Hurst, History of Methodism. The original photograph is in Rose Memorial Library, Drew University, and was loaned by them for this cover.
