Methodist History

JANUARY, 1977

Peter Cartwright Memorial United Methodist Church
near Springfield, Illinois
May 10-12, 1977  Annual Meeting
Northeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History
Jumonville (near Uniontown), Pa.

June 26-29, 1977  Regional Conference
World Methodist Historical Society
Victoria Univeristy
Toronto, Ontario, Canada

July 12-14, 1977  Annual Meeting
North Central Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History
Rapid City, S.D.

July 12-14, 1977  Annual Meeting
Southeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History
Millsaps College
Jackson, Miss.
CONTENTS

Contributors ................................................................. 74

Der christliche Apologete: German Prophet to America,
1914-1918, by James A. Dwyer ........................................ 75

Ohio Origins of the United Brethren in Christ and the Evangelical Association, by Donald K. Gorrell ................. 95

Women as Clergy and Laity in the 19th Century Methodist Protestant Church, by William T. Noll ............................ 107

Methodist Missionary Graves in Japan,
by John W. Krummel .................................................... 122

DISCOVERY, edited by Kenneth E. Rowe ......................... 131

Book Reviews ................................................................. 140

Methodist History is included in the
Index to Religious Periodical Literature,
The United Methodist Periodical Index,
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts, and America: History and Life.

Manuscripts submitted for publication, and all other correspondence, should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina 28745.
Contributors

JAMES A. DWYER is currently European coordinator of Brethren Colleges Abroad in Marburg, Germany; a doctoral candidate in History of Christianity at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary and Northwestern University; and a member of the North Indiana Conference of the United Methodist Church. His dissertation will seek to trace the development of the Methodist churches in Germany from 1914 to 1945. In 1975-76 Mr. Dwyer studied in Tubingen and at the Methodist Seminary in Reutlingen as Fellow of the German Academic Exchange Service and of the Bishop John M. Moore Fellowship. He has also studied at Manchester College, Perkins School of Theology, and in Marburg.

DONALD K. GORRELL is Professor of Church History at United Theological Seminary, Dayton. He received the A.B. degree from Miami University, the M.Div. from Yale, and the M.A. and Ph.D. from Western Reserve. Dr. Gorrell is the author of numerous articles in the field of church history and has contributed previously to this periodical. He is the Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History of the United Methodist Church for the 1977-80 quadrennium.

WILLIAM T. NOLL, United Methodist minister at Belvidere, New Jersey, received the M.Div. degree from Drew Theological Seminary and is continuing graduate study at Drew for the S.T.M. degree. His manuscript published in this issue was given the Seminary Award in 1975 by the General Commission on Archives and History.

JOHN W. KRUMMEL, Assistant Professor at Aoyama Gakuin University, Tokyo, Japan, was educated at DePauw (B.A.) and Boston (S.T.B. cum laude and M.A.). He served as a short-term missionary of The Methodist Church in Japan, 1956-59, and returned to Japan as a missionary in 1961. Mr. Krummel is the author of several books and articles, as well as a number of translations, and has contributed previously to this magazine.

DUNCAN A. REILY is a United Methodist missionary in Brazil. Following undergraduate studies at Millsaps College, Dr. Reily studied theology at Candler and took the doctorate in church history at Emory University in 1972.

COVER: The 1976 General Conference named the Peter Cartwright Memorial Church as a national United Methodist historic shrine. The church, and five related sites within the historical cluster, is located at Pleasant Plains, sixteen miles northwest of Springfield, Illinois.