JANUARY, 1980

This month features

CREATING A SPHERE FOR WOMEN IN THE CHURCH: HOW CONSEQUENTIAL AN ACCOMMODATION?

DOROTHY TILLY, CIVIL RIGHTS, AND THE METHODIST CHURCH

WOMEN IN CHURCH HISTORY: STEREOTYPES, ARCHTYPES AND OPERATIONAL MODALITIES

THE JOHN EVANS HOUSE COMES TO THE STRAWBRIDGE SHRINE

ORDINATION OF WOMEN BY THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST, 1889
EDITORIAL BOARD

Emory Stevens Bucke
Richard P. Heitzenrater
Rosemary Skinner Keller
Winston H. Taylor
Kathleen Thomas-Sano
Samuel Wong
CONTENTS

Contributors ......................................................... 82

Creating a Sphere for Women in the Church: How Consequential an Accommodation?
by Rosemary Skinner Keller ................................. 83

Dorothy Tilly, Civil Rights, and The Methodist Church, by Arnold Shankman .............................. 95

Women in Church History: Stereotypes, Archetypes and Operational Modalities, by Earl Kent Brown ....... 109

The John Evans House Comes to the Strawbridge
Shrine, by John B. Warman ................................. 133

DISCOVERY, edited by Kenneth E. Rowe ............ 136

Book Reviews ....................................................... 144

Methodist History is included in Religious Index One: Periodicals,
The United Methodist Periodical Index,
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life

Manuscripts submitted for publication, and all other correspondence, should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina 28745.
CONTRIBUTORS

ROSEMARY SKINNER KELLER is Assistant Professor of Religion and American Culture at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. She is currently co-editing with Rosemary Ruether a Documentary History of American Women in the Church, to be published by Harper & Row. Dr. Keller received her Ph.D. in American History from the University of Illinois Chicago Circle Campus in 1977. Her doctoral dissertation, "Abigail Adams and the American Revolution: A Personal History," was written under a grant from the American Association of University Women. Dr. Keller also holds a Master's of Religious Education degree from Yale Divinity School. She is a consecrated diaconal minister in The United Methodist Church.

ARNOLD SHANKMAN is Associate Professor of History at Winthrop College. He holds the B.A. (1968) degree from Knox College and the M.A. (1969) and Ph.D. (1972) degrees from Emory University. In 1973-74 he was a National Endowment for the Humanities postdoctoral fellow in ethnic studies at Harvard University. He has published in several history journals and has written a sketch of Dorothy Tilly which will appear in the supplement to Notable American Women.

EARL KENT BROWN is Professor of Church History at Boston University School of Theology. He holds the B.A. degree from Columbia University, the S.T.B. from Boston University School of Theology, and the Ph.D. from Boston University Graduate School. Dr. Brown was visiting Professor of the History of Christianity at United Theological College, Bangalore during the June and September terms of 1978. In 1979 he spent five months doing research at the Methodist Archives and Research Center, John Rylands Library, Manchester, England, on the roles of women in early Methodist history. He has served as a consultant to, among others, the Anna Howard Shaw Center and the Women’s History Project of the United Methodist Commission on Archives and History. Dr. Brown is the author of numerous articles published in several historical journals.

JOHN B. WARMAN is Bishop of the Harrisburg Area of The United Methodist Church, and is Chairman of the General Commission on Archives and History. Bishop Warman delivered the paper published here at the consecration of the John Evans House on July 14, 1979, after it was moved to the site of the Strawbridge Shrine at New Windsor, Maryland.

DONALD K. GORRELL is Professor of Church History at United Theological Seminary, Dayton. He holds the A.B. Degree from Miami University, the M.Div. from Yale, and the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Western Reserve. He is Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History. Dr. Gorrell is the author of a number of articles in the area of church history and has published previously in this journal.