A Comparison of the Doctrines of Ministry of Asbury and Otterbein

Texas Methodism's Other Half

Youth Ministry in American Methodism's Mission

Alfred Brunson and the Wisconsin Missionary Frontier
METHODIST HISTORY

John H. Ness, Jr., Editor-In-Chief
Louise L. Queen, Editor

VOLUME XIX JULY 1981 Number 4

CONTENTS

Contributors .......................................................... 186

A Comparison of the Doctrines of Ministry of Francis Asbury and Philip William Otterbein, by Jeffrey P. Mickle ................................................ 187

Texas Methodism's Other Half,
by Margaret Wasson ................................................ 206

Youth Ministry in American Methodism's Mission,
by J. Warren Smith ................................................ 224

Alfred Brunson and the Wisconsin Missionary
Frontier, by Steven C. Schulte ................................. 231

DISCOVERY, edited by Kenneth E. Rowe ....................... 238

Book Reviews .......................................................... 242

Index of Volume XIX ................................................ 249

Methodist History is included in Religion Index One: Periodicals
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life

Manuscripts submitted for publication, and all other correspondence, should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina 28745.
CONTRIBUTORS

JEFFREY P. MICKLE is a probationary member of the Western Pennsylvania Conference of The United Methodist Church and is a student in the Master of Theology program at the Divinity School of Duke University. He holds a B.A. in history from the University of Pittsburgh and an M.Div. from Duke. Mr. Mickle will be serving in the parish ministry together with his wife, Deborah L. Austin, as a clergy couple. The paper published here won first prize in the 1980 Seminary Award of the General Commission on Archives and History.

MARGARET WASSON is a graduate of Southern Methodist University, and has done graduate work elsewhere. She spent nearly forty years with the Highland Park (Greater Dallas) School System, twenty-five of these as Director of Instruction. She is the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Wasson and was born in Korea, where her parents were serving as missionaries. She has been especially active in the work of United Methodist Women. This paper was read at the annual meeting of the Texas United Methodist Historical Society on February 7, 1980, in Dallas.

J. WARREN SMITH is a rising senior at Woodward Academy, College Park, Georgia, where he is active in student government. He qualified for the National Forensic League his freshman year and has participated in Barkley Forum at Emory University. Mr. Smith is a member of the North Georgia Conference Commission on Archives and History and of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society. He is active in the UMYF at First United Methodist Church, College Park.

STEVEN C. SCHULTE is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Wyoming. He holds the B.S. degree from the University of Wisconsin-River Falls, and the M.A. from Colorado State University.

E. DALE DUNLAP is Dean of Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City, Missouri.