Cover:

Pictured are four important American Methodist historians.
METHODOIST HISTORY

Charles Yrigoyen, Jr., Editor
Louise L. Queen, Managing Editor

VOLUME XXII JANUARY 1984 NUMBER 2

CONTENTS

The Origins, Character, and Influence of John Wesley's
Thoughts upon Slavery, by Frank Baker .......................... 75

Methodist History at the Bicentennial: The State of the Art, by Kenneth E. Rowe ........................... 87

Women and the Nature of Ministry in the United Methodist Tradition, by Rosemary S. Keller .................... 99

The Way We Were in 1884, by Frederick E. Maser ................ 115

DISCOVERY, edited by Frederick E. Maser ......................... 128

Mount Vernon Place Church, Baltimore .......................... 133

Book Reviews ...................................................... 135

Methodist History is included in Religion Index One: Periodicals,
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life

Manuscripts submitted for publication and all other correspondence should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, P.O. Box 127, Madison, NJ 07940.
CONTRIBUTORS

FRANK BAKER, B.D., Ph.D., is a British Methodist minister and is Professor Emeritus of English Church History at The Divinity School, Duke University. He is editor-in-chief of the Bicentennial Edition of Wesley's Works [formerly known as the Oxford Edition]. Dr. Baker is the author of numerous books and articles relating to the history of Methodism and particularly to John Wesley.

KENNETH E. ROWE, B.A., B.D., M.L.S., Ph.D., is Associate Professor of Church History and Methodist Librarian at Drew University. Dr. Rowe is editor of the multi-volume Methodist Union Catalog: Pre-1976 Imprints, has compiled a number of bibliographies on Methodist subjects such as Methodist Women: A Guide to the Literature, and is the author or editor of several books and articles in the field of Methodist history.

ROSEMARY SKINNER KELLER, M.R.E., Ph.D., is Associate Professor of Religion and American Culture at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. She was co-editor of the two-volume Women in New Worlds: Historical Perspectives on the Wesleyan Tradition. Dr. Keller is presently working with Dr. Rosemary Ruether on a three-volume documentary history, Women and Religion in America, which is being published by Harper & Row. She is also the author of several articles on the involvement of Methodist women in the life of the Church.

FREDERICK E. MASER, M.A., M.Div., D.D., LL.D., is a member of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of The United Methodist Church, a former Executive Secretary of the World Methodist Historical Society, and former pastor of old St. George's Church, Philadelphia. He has published several books, the latest being Robert Strawbridge: First American Methodist Circuit Rider, and numerous articles on Methodist history.