CONTENTS

Contributors .................................................. 66

John Wesley Iliff and Theological Education in the West
by J. Alton Templin ........................................... 67

Church Union Dialogue in the Come-outer Tradition:
Wesleyan Methodists and Methodist Protestants, 1858-1867
by William H. Brackney ...................................... 82

Consequences and Principles: A Reexamination of the 1860
Free Methodist—Methodist Episcopal Schism
by John W. McNeill ........................................... 98

Bishop Daniel A. Payne: An Apostle of Wesley by Charles D. Killian ........................................ 107

DISCOVERY edited by Frederick E. Maser .................. 120

Book Reviews .................................................. 124

Proceedings of the 1985 Annual Meeting of the General Commission on Archives and History ............. 128
CONTRIBUTORS

J. ALTON TEMPLIN is Professor of Church History and Historical Theology at the Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado. He is a graduate of the University of Denver (B.A.), the Iliff School of Theology (Th.M. and Th.D.) and Harvard University (Ph.D.). Dr. Templin is the author of a number of articles on Methodism and the Reformation as well as Ideology on a Frontier: The Theological Foundation of Afrikaner Nationalism, 1652-1910.

WILLIAM H. BRACKNEY is the chief executive of the American Baptist Historical Society in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. He has received degrees from the University of Maryland (B.A.), Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary (B.D.) and Temple University (M.A. and Ph.D.). His article was first delivered at a Bicentennial Consultation on Methodism and Ministry: Historical Explorations, at Drew University and under its sponsorship and that of the Division of Ordained Ministry and the General Commission on Archives and History of The United Methodist Church.

JOHN W. McNEILL is pastor of the Panama United Methodist Church in Panama, New York. He received his M.Div. from Colgate Rochester Divinity School and his Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of Rochester. His dissertation was titled, “Narrative Comprehension and Historical Understanding.”

CHARLES D. KILLIAN is Professor of Preaching and Drama at Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky. He is a graduate of Marion College (A.B.), Asbury Theological Seminary (B.D.) and Indiana University (Ph.D.). Dr. Killian is well known for his dramatic portrayal of Francis Asbury.