EDITORIAL BOARD

Ondina S. Gonzalez, Class of 1990
Ralph H. Jones, Class of 1988
John G. McEllhenney, Class of 1990
Annette F. Nall, Class of 1988
Kenneth E. Rowe, Class of 1988
Stephen E. Yale, Class of 1990

Cover:
Peter Cartwright (see article in this issue)
METHODIST HISTORY
Charles Yrigoyen, Jr., Editor

VOLUME XXVI JANUARY 1988 NUMBER 2

CONTENTS

Contributors................................................................. 66

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South,
Mission to Russians in Manchuria, 1920-1927
by Dana L. Robert..................................................... 67

John Wesley's Awareness and Application of the Method of Distinguishing Between Theological Essentials and Theological Opinions
by Howe Octavius Thomas, Jr........................................ 84

Pragmatic Evangelical: Herbert Taylor, 1893-1978
by Paul H. Heidebrecht................................................ 98

Peter Cartright and Charisma
by Katharine L. Dvorak............................................... 113

DISCOVERY edited by Frederick E. Maser......................... 127

Methodist History is included in Religion Index One: Periodicals,
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life

Manuscripts submitted for publication and all other correspondence should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, P. O. Box 127, Madison, NJ 07940.
CONTRIBUTORS

DANA L. ROBERT is Assistant Professor of International Mission at Boston University School of Theology. She was awarded a Ph.D. from Yale University. Her major field of research was church history. Dr. Robert is a native of Louisiana. She is Secretary-Treasurer of the Association of Professors of Mission and serves on the Board of Publication of the American Society of Missiology.

HOWE OCTAVIUS THOMAS, JR. is an ordained United Methodist minister in the California-Pacific Annual Conference. He has received an M.A. degree from the University of Bristol, England and is a doctoral candidate at that institution. His master’s thesis is titled, “John Wesley’s Understanding of the Distinction Between Theological Essentials and Theological Opinions.” His doctoral research involves a comparison of John Wesley and Rudolf Bultmann on the concept of justification by faith.

PAUL H. HEIDEBRECHT is Vice-President for Program Development and Publications for the Christian Service Brigade in Wheaton, IL. He is a graduate of the University of Winnipeg (B.A.), Wheaton College (M.A.) and the University of Illinois (Ph.D.). Dr. Heidebrecht has taught at the University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign) and Wheaton College. He has published an article in the Journal of Presbyterian History and is the author of Fathering A Son (Moody Press, 1979).

KATHARINE L. DVORAK is Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA. She is a graduate of Loyola University, Chicago (B.A.) and the University of Chicago (Ph.D.). Her doctoral research dealt with the black churches in the south following the Civil War. Dr. Dvorak has also served as editorial assistant for Church History. 