THE GREAT AUDITORIUM
EDITORIAL BOARD

Ondina S. Gonzalez, Class of 1990
Ralph H. Jones, Class of 1988
John G. McEllhenney, Class of 1990
Annette F. Nall, Class of 1988
Kenneth E. Rowe, Class of 1988
Stephen E. Yale, Class of 1990

Cover:
The Great Auditorium, Ocean Grove, New Jersey.
See last article in this issue.
CONTENTS

Contributors ....................................................... 134

William Penn Chandler and Revivalism in the East
  by Kirk Mariner ........................................... 135

Ann Dumville: A Woman of Conviction
  by Linda Carlisle Pruitt ................................. 147

"Lost in the Immensity of God": A Pre-Civil War Methodist Woman's Experience of the Presence and Power of God
  by Ruth Dunn Widmann ................................... 164

DISCOVERY edited by Frederick E. Maser
  The Letters of the Reverend Robert C. Lanning to the Reverend Henry W. Hicks, 1866-1888:
  A View of Early Methodism in Michigan
  by James A. Dodd ....................................... 176

From Frontier Phenomenon to Victorian Institution:
  The Methodist Camp Meeting in Ocean Grove,
  New Jersey
  by Randall H. Balmer ................................... 194

Methodist History is included in Religion Index One: Periodicals,
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life

Manuscripts submitted for publication and all other correspondence should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, P. O. Box 127, Madison, NJ 07940.
CONTRIBUTORS

KIRK CHAPMAN MARINER is the pastor of The Church of the Good Shepherd (United Methodist) in Vienna, Virginia. He is a graduate of Randolph-Macon College (BA), the Yale Divinity School (MDiv) and Wesley Theological Seminary (DMin). Dr. Mariner is the author of Nothing Ever Happened in Arcadia (1968) and Revival’s Children: A Religious History of Virginia’s Eastern Shore.

LINDA CARLISLE PRUITT is librarian at Ursuline Academy in Springfield, Illinois. She is a graduate of Blackburn College, Carlinville, IL (BA) and the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana (MS in library and information science). She is very interested in archives and historical research. Her articles have appeared in Cappers Weekly and Provenance.

RUTH DUNN WIDMANN is pastor of the Dix Hills United Methodist Church on Long Island, New York. She is a graduate of Central College, Pella, Iowa (BA) and Union Theological Seminary, New York (MDiv). She is presently enrolled in the Methodist Studies graduate program at Drew University. Her article is based on research done for a course on 19th century women’s history.

JAMES A. DODD is Library Director at Adrian College in Adrian, Michigan. He is also a member of the Detroit Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History. Mr. Dodd is a graduate of Northland College (BA cum laude) and the University of Wisconsin (MSLS). The research for his article was completed in the Detroit Conference archives where the Hicks letters are located.

RANDALL H. BALMER is Assistant Professor of Religion at Columbia University, New York. Among his other degrees he holds a PhD from Princeton University. Dr. Balmer has received the Sidney E. Mead Prize from the American Society of Church History, the Manuscript Award from the New York State Historical Association, and The Alfred E. Driscoll Publication Prize from the New Jersey Historical Commission.