Cover: John Taylor (1694-1761), dissenting cleric and Hebrew scholar, who denied the doctrine of original sin. See first article in this issue.
CONTENTS

Contributors ................................................................. 70

Formica Contra Leonem: An Eighteenth Century Conflict
Reassessed
  by Geoffrey Thackray Eddy ........................................ 71

John Wesley and Early Swedish Pietism: Carl Magnus Wrangel and Johan Hinric Liden
  by Ole E. Borgen .................................................. 82

Lay Shepherds of the Flock: The Class Leader in Early New York City Methodism
  by Philip F. Hardt ................................................ 104

John Wesley and the Enlightened Historians
  by Ken MacMillan .................................................... 121

DISCOVERY edited by Frederick E. Maser ....................... 133

Book Reviews .............................................................. 135

Copyright: 2000, General Commission on Archives and History,
The United Methodist Church

Methodist History is included in Religion Index One: Periodicals,
Religious and Theological Abstracts,
Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life

Manuscripts submitted for publication and all other correspondence should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, P.O. Box 127, Madison, NJ 07940. Prospective authors are advised to write for guidelines for publication.
CONTRIBUTORS

G. THACKRAY EDDY is a minister of the British Conference. He served various English circuits and was Chairman of the Ghana District. During his last appointment, as Chairman of the East Anglia District, he lived in Norwich, scene of the ministry of Dr. John Taylor (1691–1761), and in retirement has researched Taylor's books and papers in the library of Harris Manchester College, Oxford.

OLE E. BORGEN is a retired United Methodist bishop living in Norway. Bishop Borgen is well-known for his published works on the history of United Methodism and the Wesleys. His doctoral dissertation (Drew University) was published as John Wesley on the Sacraments and is considered the classic study on that topic. His article was first presented to the 1998 annual meeting of the Historical Society of The United Methodist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas.

PHILIP F. HARDT is a pastor in the New York Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and teaches at Mount Saint Mary College, Newburgh, New York, and New Brunswick Theological Seminary in New Jersey. He is a graduate of Southern Connecticut State College (B.S.), Yale University Divinity School (M.Div., S.T.M.), and Fordham University (Ph.D.).

KEN MACMILLAN is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. He specializes in early modern British history with a focus on the intellectual climate of the eighteenth century.