CONTRIBUTORS

MICHAEL NAUSNER is a Ph.D. Candidate at the Caspersen School of Graduate Studies, Drew University, Madison, NJ. He is a graduate of Uppsala University, Sweden (M.Div.). He is also an ordained elder in The United Methodist Church, has served as a pastor, and for three years edited the Swedish United Methodist periodical, Svenska Söndebudet.

TIM MACQUIBAN is Director of the Wesley and Methodist Studies Centre, Westminster College, Oxford. This paper was originally presented at the World Methodist Historical Society Seminar held at the 1996 World Methodist Conference in Rio de Janeiro.

CHARLES YRIGOYEN, JR. is General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History of The United Methodist Church. A version of this paper was originally published in a series of essays on John Williamson Nevin in Reformed Confessionalism in Nineteenth-Century America (Scarecrow Press, 1995). It is reproduced here with permission.
