Cover: George F. Johnson (1847-1948), executive of the Endicott–Johnson Corporation. See article in this issue. Photo courtesy of Your Home Library.
CONTENTS

Contributors ........................................................................ 70

Which Way EJ? In Search of a New Creation

by John L. Topolewski ............................................................. 71

John Wesley Meets Laetitia Pilkington

by John C. English ................................................................ 88

From Dependent Child to Distant Cousin: A Story of the Relationship of a College and the Church

by J. Dennis Williams ............................................................. 98

Francis Asbury’s First Circuit: Bedfordshire, 1767

by Jonathan Rodell ............................................................... 110

Remnants of John Wesley’s Personal Library

by Randy L. Maddox ............................................................. 122

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 129
CONTRIBUTORS

JOHN L. TOPOLEWSKI is a retired clergy member of the Wyoming Conference of The United Methodist Church. His essay in this issue is a revised version of a chapter in Where Rivers Run and Mountains Rise: Essays in Celebration of the Sesquecentennial of the Wyoming Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church (2002). His article on the Trust Clause was published in the April 1999 issue of Methodist History.

JOHN C. ENGLISH is Professor of History emeritus at Baker University, Baldwin City, Kansas. Among his many publications are several articles in Methodist History on John Wesley’s scientific views, liturgical interests, and Wesley’s views on women in early Methodism.

J. DENNIS WILLIAMS is a retired clergy member of the Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference. He is presently serving as Director of Methodist Studies at the Evangelical School of Theology, Myerstown, Pennsylvania. His appointments have included several pastorates and the District Superintendency. He is a trustee of Lebanon Valley College, Annville, PA.

JONATHAN RODELL is an ordained presbyter of the Methodist Church in Great Britain. He currently serves on a circuit in Surrey. Rodell studied history at Cambridge University and is completing a doctorate on the history of Methodism in Bedfordshire.

RANDY L. MADDOX is Paul T. Walls Professor of Wesleyan Theology at Seattle Pacific University. He is Director of Kingswood Books, an imprint of The United Methodist Publishing House. This article contains the final in a series, this one listing books owned by John Wesley.