Cover: This year marks the 200th anniversary of the death of Barbara Heck (1734 - 1804), acknowledged as the "Mother of American Methodism."
CONTENTS

Contributors ............................................. 134

Dearest Ellen: Correspondence Between Bishop Matthew Simpson and His Wife
by James E. Kirby ........................................ 135

The First Family Values of Methodism: The Wesleys
by Gail E. Murphy-Geiss ................................ 148

Duke University and the Methodist Tradition
by William E. Pike ...................................... 167

Asbury and the Foxalls
by John A. Vickers ..................................... 178

DISCOVERY edited by Robert Drew Simpson .......... 180

Book Review ............................................... 185

Minutes of the 2003 Annual Meeting of the Historical Society of The United Methodist Church ....................... 187
CONTRIBUTORS

JAMES E. KIRBY is Professor of Church History at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University. He has taught the history of Methodism and is the author of The Episcopacy in American Methodism (Kingswood Books, 2000) and co-author of The Methodists (Greenwood Press, 1996).

GAIL E. MURPHY-GEISS is Assistant Professor of Sociology, Colorado College, Colorado Springs, CO. She is a graduate of Westminster College (B.A.), Boston University (M.Div.), and the University of Denver/Illiff School of Theology (Ph.D.). Her doctoral research concentrated on Methodism and family values.

WILLIAM E. PIKE is Staff Associate for Caring Communities, a Duke Endowment-supported program of the Duke University Divinity School, focused on building health ministries in the Carolinas. He is a recent graduate of the Duke Divinity School and received his undergraduate degree from Harvard University.

JOHN A. VICKERS is retired Principal Lecturer and Head of Religious and Social Studies at West Sussex Institute of Education in Great Britain. In addition to many publications on the Wesleys and Methodism, he is the editor of A Dictionary of Methodism in Britain and Ireland (Epworth, 2000). He also serves as indexer for the Bicentennial Edition of the Works of John Wesley.