FOREWORD

Once again the editors of the A.M.E. Zion Quarterly Review, Methodist History, and the News Bulletin of the World Methodist Historical Society are pleased to join together in publishing a combined issue in behalf of the World Methodist Historical Society. We thus are able to provide our subscribers with a series of excellent manuscripts at no extra cost.

The second Regional Conference of the World Methodist Historical Society was held at St. Paul School of Theology Methodist, Kansas City, Missouri, July 23-26, 1974. The theme DIVERSITY IN METHODISM was carried out in a series of outstanding presentations by some of the leading scholars within the Wesleyan tradition in North America. All manuscripts are presented in this issue with the exception of one, which had not been received at the time of publication. We regret this omission, but we also express our appreciation to all who sent their manuscripts for publication. No editorial revision has been made in any way, so each lecture is presented substantially as delivered at Kansas City. Approximately eighty registrants comprised the conference membership.

Additional copies of this issue may be purchased from the World Methodist Historical Society office, Lake Junaluska, N. C. 28745, at $2.50 each.
