Contributors

JOHN B. BOLES, who received his doctorate from Virginia in 1969, is a Professor of History at Towson State College, and Editor of the Maryland Historical Magazine. He is the author of The Great Revival, 1787-1805: The Origins of the Southern Evangelical Mind, editor of America: The Middle Period Essays in Honor of Bernard Mayo, and has written numerous articles and reviews.

INA TURNER GRAY, Director of the Commission on Archives and History, Kansas West Conference, received the B.S. degree from Central Methodist College, and the M.A. from Scarritt College. She has also studied at the University of Hawaii and the Archives-Library Institute of the Ohio State Historical Society. Mrs. Gray has engaged in historical research for a number of years, with special emphasis on Methodist history.

BRUCE M. STEPHENS, Assistant Professor of Humanities and Religious Studies at Pennsylvania State University, Delaware County Campus, received the B.A. degree from Allegheny College and the M.Div. and Ph.D. degrees from Drew University.

ALBRIGHT MEMORIAL CHAPEL at Kleinfeltersville, Pennsylvania, is one of the National Historic Shrines of the United Methodist Church. The memorial stone shown in the right foreground has been moved to another location on the property, and the Jacob Albright gravesite is also on this property.
