CONTRIBUTORS

PAUL E. KUHL, Instructor of History at Winston-Salem State University, was educated at Pan American University, Edinburg, Texas (B.A.) and Southern Illinois University (M.A.). He is now a doctoral candidate in history at Southern Illinois. Mr. Kuhl has also taught aboard the aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy in the Program for Afloat College Education in affiliation with George Washington University.

WILLIAM C. BEAL, JR., Archivist of The United Methodist Church, received the B.S. degree at Albright College and S.T.M. from United Theological Seminary. He is certified in Archival Administration by the Georgia Department of Archives and History and the Emory University Division of Librarianship. He is presently completing training in Records Management Administration. The paper published here was presented at the annual meeting of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History in 1977.

NOLAN B. HARMON, retired Bishop of The United Methodist Church, served as Book Editor of The Methodist Church prior to his election to the episcopacy. He is the author and editor of numerous volumes and articles on the life and history of the Church, and following retirement he served as General Editor of the 3-volume Encyclopedia of World Methodism.
