

Methodist History

John H. Ness, Jr., Editor
Louise L. Queen, Editorial Assistant

Volume XI

JULY, 1973

Number 4

CONTENTS

	Page
Contributors	2
A Black Methodist on Reconstruction in Mississippi: Three Letters by James Lynch in 1868-1869, by William B. Gravely ...	3
Peter Doub 1796-1869: His Contribution to the Religious and Educational Development of North Carolina, by Margaret Ann Hites	19
Isaac Owen—Overland to California, by John R. Purdy, Jr.	46
DISCOVERY, edited by Frederick E. Maser	55
Book Reviews	59
Index	69

Methodist History is included in the Index to Religious Periodical Literature,
The United Methodist Periodical Index,
and Religious and Theological Abstracts

Manuscripts submitted for publication, and all other correspondence, should be addressed to Editor, METHODIST HISTORY, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina 28745.

CONTRIBUTORS

WILLIAM B. GRAVELY, a native of South Carolina, is associate professor in the Department of Religion, University of Denver. He received the Ph.D. degree from Duke University. Dr. Gravelly won the 1970 Jesse Lee Prize for his work, Gilbert Haven, Methodist Abolitionist, which was published by Abingdon Press in June 1973.

MARGARET ANN HITES, a native of Alabama and a resident of Greensboro, North Carolina, received the A.B. degree, magna cum laude, from Birmingham-Southern College and the M.A. from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She holds membership in Phi Beta Kappa, and is an active member of West Market United Methodist Church, Greensboro.

JOHN R. PURDY, JR. is on the staff of the Central State University Library, Edmond, Oklahoma. He received the B.A. from San Diego State College and the M.A. from the Claremont Graduate School. He is a doctoral candidate in American History at the Claremont Graduate School and is currently writing a dissertation dealing with Methodism in the California Gold Rush.

COVER

The Old Stone Church was begun in 1766 and completed in 1770. The earliest dated tombstone in the adjacent cemetery is 1777. The church was torn down in 1902. Today the Old Stone Church Site and Cemetery, designated as one of the historic shrines of American Methodism in 1964, is the property of the Virginia Conference Commission on Archives and History.